He had lived in Torrance for the past 12 years and was a retired city employee. He is survived by his widow, Nancy; a son, John E. of Torrance; a sister, Hazel Laverty, and a brother, Walter,

the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel.

3-Week Course Planned For Women on Investments

A unique three-week investment course, for women only, will be offered at all 15 May Co. stores in Southern California, beginning Wednesday, Oct. 12. The classes, for which there is no admission charge, will be conducted by qualified account executives from E. F. Hutton & Co. Inc., member of the New York Stock Exchange since 1904. Both of Massachusetts. Burial was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

The three-class series, one per week, has been tailored specifically to answer the needs of the woman who is interested in knowing more about investments. It is designed to teach, in simple step-by-step detail, the functions and language of the stock market and how a woman can invest to achieve her goals. Classes at the South Bay May Co. will be held Oct. 12, 19 and 26 beginning at 7:30 p.m.
